Guru Nanak Jayanti

(Pre Primary)

Little ones of Cambridge International School, Phagwara visited the pious Gurudwara Sahib in Phagwara, "Sukhchain Sahib" on 22nd November, 2018 on the occasion of Guru Nanak Jayanti. Children religiously covered their head with scarves & washed their feet, started with paying reverence to the holy book of the Sikh 'THE GURUGRANTH SAHIB'. Children were involved in a small prayer in which all of them diligently participated. They were delighted to offer and receive the Prasad. It was a pleasant and an enriching experience for the children as they were enlightened about the festival.

Gurpurab Celebrations (Primary)

Gurpurab also known as Guru Nanak's Prakash Utsav and Guru Nanak Jayanti, celebrates the birth anniversary of the first Sikh Guru, Guru Nanak Dev ji.

On the eve of Gurpurab, students of primary wing, organized a special morning assembly where they spoke and enacted about life and philosophy of Guru Nanak Devji . Students came dressed in traditional attires. The celebration started with prabhat pheri after which they sang hymns, gave speeches, enacted his teachings like sharing, equality with everyone and this really charged the atmosphere with positive vibes and created a mesmerizing aura.

The glimpse of the practices carried out in gurudwars on the day of gurpurab like sewa, kirtan and langar and the path of Guru Granth Sahib(the holy book of Sikhs) etc. was showcased .

Principal Mr.Jorawar Singh guided the students to imbibe the teachings of Guru Nanak Dev ji in our lives.

Gurpurab Celebrations (Middle)

Keeping with the secular ethos of the school, the Middle school celebrated Gurpurab, one of the several auspicious religious festivals in Sikhism, to mark the Parkash Utsav of Guru Nanak Dev.

The students prepared a medley of activities on this occasion to commemorate and remember the birth and philosophy of Guru Nanak, the first Sikh Guru and founder of Sikhism. The assembly commenced with the recitation of the first pauri of 'Jap ji Sahib' followed by the 'Shabad'. They chanted the Mool Mantra 'Ek Om Kar' from Guru Granth Sahib with a student explaining the meaning of the mantra.

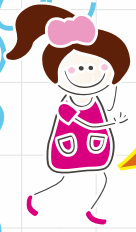

Principal Mr.Jorawar Singh guided the students to imbibe the teachings of Guru Nanak Dev ji in our lives.

Children's Day Celebration

Children's day was celebrated on Wednesday, 14.11.18 in Kindergarten classes of Cambridge International School Phagwara, with full exuberance. As the little ones are always excited to do something with their little creative hands, a goodie foodie activity was performed by them on this special day. They made luscious choco pops, nachos salsa chat, fruit cream and many more healthy and delightful dishes.

The teachers presented good thoughts, speeches and also a lovely ballad for them. Chocolates, as token of love, were given to every child by respected Principal Sir.

Diwali Celebrations

(Pre Primary)

The Pre Primary Wing of Cambridge International School, Phagwara wore a festive look as the students celebrated the festival of lights, Diwali. The significance of the day was brought out by stories, and class discussions. Various activities such as Diya Decoration, Rangoli making and Derailed card Making were organized. Teachers taught the little ones about hazards of bursting crackers and advised them to refrain from doing so. They promised to celebrate a Safe and Green Diwali.

Diwali Celebrations (Primary)

The celebration of Diwali, the festival of lights, came alive at Cambridge International School, Phagwara on October 5 when the whole school wore a festive look with rangoli, diyas and lanterns adorning the reception and corridors of the school.

An Interhouse Rangoli making competition was organized for the students of grades 3 to 5 which added the perfect setting to the festivity.

During the morning assembly students of grade 1-5 talked about the significance of the festival how good always conquers the evil and also about why and how Diwali is celebrated across the country by different religions depicting the essence through a short play.

Principal Mr.Jorawar Singh sensitized the students about the ill-effects of crackers and appreciated the hard work of the participants.

He celebrated Diwali with students in a different manner by bursting of balloon in place of crackers.

Donation Campaign in Cambridge International School

WITH CHRISTMAS SPIRIT IN THE HEART, JINGLE BELLS
IN THE EARS

Cambridge International School, Phagwara organized a donation campaign along with NGO Goonj in the school. On this Christmas Eve, students of primary classes have donated winter clothes like jerseys, sweaters, shoes etc. in a bid to help those in need. All the parents contributed for this noble cause with great zeal. A special assembly was organized for which students came in red and white coloured clothes and sang jingle bell and other Christmas carols with great enthusiasm. "Real happiness lies in the joy of giving and students of Cambridge International School, Phagwara whole heartedly contributed to it." said Principal Mr. Jorawar Singh.

When art is combined with festivity, a masterpiece is discovered. An art competition was also conducted in primary classes on Christmas theme. The corridors of the school were decorated by students themselves. The students came up with their unique masterpiece. Chairman Mr. K.S. Bassi and M.D. Mr. K.S. Bains appreciated students, parents and teachers for their excellent participation. Chairman of I-League Education Mr. Sanjeev Vassal congratulated to the team of Cambridge International School, Phagwara for doing this noble job.

Science Fest

Cambridge International School organized Science Fest for classes 6 to 8

On pretext of International Science Week “Science Fest” was organized in Cambridge International School on 2nd November, 2018 by the students of classes 6 to 8. Under the guidance of Science department a science Exhibition cum experiment fair was organized in the school.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Managing Director Mr.K.S. Bains and Principal Mr.Jorawar Singh.

The students enthusiastically set up their projects in quadrangle. Around 100 students participated in the event and showed up with the project.

The students were zealous to explain the concept of their project to every passing onlooker. The projects ranged from a simple classic volcano science project to wireless electricity model and normally ejected hydro acceleration model. The students displayed intellect which was way past their age in building these models.

Some of the projects worth mentioning were: Lie detector machine, cheapest mobile charger, hydraulic crane, magnetic cranes and many more.

Principal Mr.Jorawar Singh applauded the efforts of the students and the science department and said that such events not only help the students to get hands on experience but also prepare them for future life.

Interhouse Rangoli Competition

Let me, O let me bathe my soul in colours;
let me swallow the sunset and drink the rainbow."

Rangoli is something each of us can easily relate to as they signify color and festivities. Be it any occasion, a family function or a festival, a Rangoli can lift everyone's mood and can fetch us some quick compliments. Keeping in mind this very tradition, Cambridge International School organized the Inter House Rangoli Competition on the occasion of Diwali.

During this festive occasion, students from Middle school participated in this competition with great enthusiasm and put together their imaginative, inventive and creative skills to make bright and beautiful. They made geometric shapes, deity impressions and floral motifs. Rangoli colours, flower petals and diyas were used to decorate the Rangolis.

The overall first position was bagged by Maple House

CAIE Trip to Naina Devi, Anandpur Sahib and Virasat-e-Khalsa

A trip was organized for the CAIE (Cambridge Assessment International Education) students of Cambridge International School, Phagwara on 24th of Nov 2018.

It was a thorough learning trip along with being educational, spiritual and thrilling. The first destination being Naina Devi Temple in Himachal, the students were given a taste of long trekking, testing their climbing fortitudes, and completing their climb with serene beholding of the goddess. The feeling was rewarding and gratifying. Taking the ropeway down the high altitude temple, the children enjoyed the breath taking view of the beautiful snow covered Himalayas.

The troupe then advanced towards Gurudwara Anandpur Sahib, located on the edge of Shivalik Hills, near Sutlej River. The serenity of the place was strongly felt and absorbed, being the place where the last two Sikh Gurus lived and where Guru Gobind Singh Ji founded the Khalsa Panth in 1699. The visit would have been incomplete without the blissful kirtan and heavenly Guru's Langar.

Consequently, Virasat-e-Khalsa, a museum of Sikhism, located in the holy town, Anandpur Sahib, extended a taste of history with a panoramic view of Indian Heritage. The museum depicts the profound stories and sacrifices of ten Sikh Gurus, engulfed in the exuberant architecture, paintings, and sculpture. The clusters of galleries try to evoke the fortress architecture of the region and the students prudently absorbed the values and lessons that they had to preach.

The trip left the students yearning for more, and promising themselves to visit the places again. The journey to visit theses immortal places left the students pondering... and made them more sensitive towards their peers, their teachers, and further towards them.

Christmas Celebration

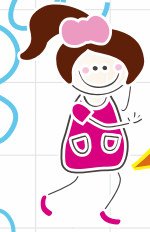

December is considered a great season of goodwill and merriment. So, to celebrate the festivities and fervor, Cambridge International School, Phagwara celebrated "Christmas" on Monday 24.12.2018.
